

MISS NERNEY AT CENTRAL BAPT. TUES.

NOTED APOSTLE OF THE NEW "ABOLITIONISM" WILL ENTER FIGHT AGAINST SEGREGATION. MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT WILL BE A LOVEJOY MEMORIAL. BIG CROWD EXPECTED.

Miss Mary Childs Nerney, of New York City, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and one of the strongest apostles of the "New Abolitionism" among the white citizens of this country, will speak at Central Baptist Church, Tuesday, November 9, 1915, at 8:30 p. m.

Miss Nerney was for some years assistant librarian of the state of New York. She is a woman of culture and high attainment and is the uncompromising friend of the colored people. It was she who went to Washington City and secured the first authentic information that there was a well devised plan to segregate the colored people in the different departments. She has been fighting it with a vengeance ever since. She comes to St. Louis in the interest of the fight that the local branch is making against segregation.

She will meet the members of the branch on Saturday evening, November 6, at 8:30 p. m., at Central Library Building, 14th and Olive Sts. Let every member be there and give her a royal welcome.

On Monday evening she will meet a gathering of white people at Sheldon Memorial Building. Special effort has been made by the committee to get her an audience whose services might be enlisted in the cause. Three hundred and fifty special letters have been sent out to prominent white people in an effort to secure for her such a hearing.

Miss Nerney comes from New York as not a single cent of taxpayer from the people of St. Louis. She goes to the cause, and show her how very much we appreciate her coming and the effort of the National Association to help us in this struggle.

At 8:15, Monday night, the assembly will sing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and after the invocation the following pastors will speak two or three minutes on Lovejoy and his legacy to the present time and conditions. Reverends Brooks, B. G. Shaw, J. G. Gaston, W. L. Perry, B. F. Abbott, S. W. Parr, S. A. Mosley, and Attorney George L. Vaughn. At 9 o'clock, Miss Nerney will be presented to the people.

Notice! Members N. A. A. C. P.

No further notice will be given of the meeting at the Library Building SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, at 8:00 p. m. for the purpose of meeting MISS NERNEY except as appears in the weekly papers. Come and bring your friends.

NEW METHOD TO REMOVE GREASE FROM HAIR AFTER TREATMENT

Miss Daisy English, proprietress of the Modern Hair Dressing Parlor, at 1822 N. Pendleton, has discovered a method for treating the hair which leaves it fluffy and graceful, giving a natural effect. The preparation is absolutely harmless and is a boon to many ladies who have heretofore objected to hair treatment. The treatment is the greasy after-effect. Miss English uses the Molar system, gives first treatment, on ordinary work, for 50 cents, and box of oil free. She reports a constantly increasing business and offers tempting inducements to young ladies who wish to demonstrate her new preparation.

Preaching at 11 O'clock. Choir Processional at 10:50

Last Sunday morning after the choir had rendered the most pleasing music, Dr. Shaw preached a powerful sermon from the 5th chapter of Revelations. A large crowd was present and two members were added to the church.

At 3 p. m. Dr. Shaw was agreeably surprised to greet such a large crowd of men present to hear a special sermon to men. Old and young men were seated to shed tears while Dr. Shaw told them how "The wages of sin is death." Many came forward to be prayed for and to accept Christ as their Saviour.

Dr. Shaw stated in an Argus report, Monday, that beginning next Sunday, November 7, in keeping with the 78th anniversary of the death of Lovejoy, his church, preaching would begin strictly at 11 o'clock. The choir processional will take place at 10:50. Dr. Shaw stated that it has been his purpose to shorten the service for every time, but having much to do, he has been hindered.

Those who wish to enjoy the entire morning services must be in their seats at eleven o'clock. He asks your co-operation in this effort.

THIS, SAYS DR. BROOKS, IS BEING FOSTERED IN ST. LOUIS. THE RIGHT TO LABOR AND TO EAT OF THE FRUIT OF CIVILIZATION IS THE PRINCIPLE LAID BY THE FATHERS OF OUR AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS. IF WE ARE LABELED BY SEGREGATION AS UNWORTHY TO LIVE AMONG THE OTHER RACES OF MANKIND IN A FREE GOVERNMENT; IT WILL CONTRADICT THE TEACHINGS OF OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND MORALLY IT WILL BE A SACRIFICE OF THE BEST SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF NATIONS."

Dr. W. Sampson Brooks will preach a special sermon next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, subject, "Segregation a Municipal Prison," and "Our American Christian Citizenship." In making the announcement Dr. Brooks stated:

"The pagan spirit of human rights and liberties is being fostered in St. Louis. Freedom is a human right. The right to labor and to eat of the fruit of civilization is the principle laid by the fathers of our American governments. If we are labelled by segregation as unworthy to live among the other races of mankind in a free government; it will contradict the teachings of our public schools and morally it will be a sacrifice of the best sons and daughters of nations."

The Jews have been suppressed by Christian nations the world over, but they have been compelled to pay for it at a great sacrifice—a sacrifice of the best sons and daughters of nations."

Destructive Heresies

By REV. J. H. RALSTON
Minister of the Christian Church,
Maine Bible Institute of Chicago

TEXT—But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who shall secretly bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bringing upon themselves swift destruction.—II Peter 2:1.

The title of this sermon is taken from the Revised Version of the Holy Scriptures, and at first glance this would seem to be less portentous than the expression in the Authorized Version, "damnable heresies." As ordinarily understood, "damnation" or "condemnation" suggests a final eternal punishment, even denying the Lord that bought them, and in such a text as this the meaning would be that those who present such a condemnation will be subjects of this condemnation.

What is Heresy?
Scripturally, one meaning is that it refers to sects or persons, and another that it refers to discords or dissensions. In Peter's time there were persons in the communities to which he wrote, who were giving out teachings that were not in accord with what he had taught. Notwithstanding that all that is in accord with the accepted teaching of the church, or "damnable" or "destructive," it is a simple matter of fact that there have been men, and it is said to say women, too, who have been bringing in "heresies of destruction." We receive the suggestion in the text, "false teachers bringing in, damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them." The ordinary result of such work has been the securing of these teachers many followers, and bringing upon themselves the destruction which their heresies perform entails.

Many Heresies of Today.
Probably never in the history of Christian thought and teaching were there so many "destructive heresies" as today. These are not in accord among themselves, and the man who does not like the truth of God's Word and has rejected the people of God is greatly perplexed to know what one of the many heresies he should adopt. The followers of these heresies as a natural result, contend with each other just as bitterly as any one of them contends with the Gospel as accepted by the church through all of its history, everywhere, and by all (somewhat, ubiquitous, et ab omnibus). And never in the history of the church were Christians needing to be under guard as today, for these false teachers are not always outside of the church. Peter says they are "among you." In some cases they have repudiated the church formally, but in many cases they cling to the church, wear its livens and pose as its teachers and leaders.

A heresy of today may be one of two things. It may be an adding to the Word of God, or by omission, or ignoring some of it. There is hardly a modern religious fad that does not connect itself in some way with the Bible. The Bible may not be the chief literary authority, but in this country the religionist must come to the people with a profession of love for the Bible. The country is run over by religionists who sell, or if need be, give away religious literature, and sometimes this literature is professedly based on the Bible. Paul avoided heresy and told the elders of the church at Ephesus that he had not failed to declare unto them the whole counsel of God. The most prominent of the modern teachers of the "destructive heresies" teach much that is in the Bible, but they leave out much which, if given out, would utterly change their teaching, and it is because of this that we speak of their teachings as heretical.

Peter sums up the heresy in mind in these words, "denying the Lord that bought them." Here we have a safeguard when we come to define heresies of destruction. They are in one way or another denials of Jesus Christ, either of his person or of some phase of his work.

Person and Work of Jesus Christ.
The great question of questions is, "What think ye of Christ—whose Son is he?" We are confined to the work of Christ as the Son of God. Now, briefly, what is the truth about the person of Jesus Christ? As taught by the church from the beginning, it is that Jesus Christ is the very Son of God, born of the Virgin Mary, was historically a person in the days of Pontius Pilate, was absolutely sinless in his thought, teaching and life, died as the only sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the world, rose again from the dead, ascended into heaven, where he now sits on the right hand of God, from whence he will come as judge and to be the mediatorial king of earth, and after manifesting his kingdom in that form, will yield that kingdom up to God, that God may be all in all.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By H. O. MILLER, Acting Director of
Sunday School, Chicago Bible Institute, Chicago

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 7

JOASH REPAIRS THE TEMPLE.

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 23:1-8.
GOLDEN TEXT—God loveth a cheerful giver.—II Cor. 9:7.

The time of this lesson was about 875 B. C., and it follows within a few years last Sunday's lesson. Inaugurated as king and instructed by the faithful priests, yet Joash discovered the great lethargy on the part of the priestly class with regard to the house of God. He set himself to arouse great liberality and to repair the temple.

1. Lethargy, v. 4, (1) its cause. We should read in this connection II Chron. 24. From the two accounts and the previous history of the nation we conclude that the condition of the temple was due, (a) to the weak and frequently vicious characters of the rulers of the nation; (b) to the evil companions of both princes and priests; and (c) to the cupidity of court and curate. (2) The result of lethargy regarding God's cause was evidenced (a) upon the temple, and (b) upon the lives of the people of the kingdom. (3) The cure. Joash initiated great reforms in Judah and in those reforms the priest (v. 2) had no small part. In this particular lesson the prince (v. 7) seems to lead the priest. Unfortunately the godly priest did not long survive the cure. Joash and hence when he came under other influences he soon went back to the evil practices of his predecessors and his reign ended in an eclipse of evil (II Chron. 24:15-26).

In this lesson we have, however, a suggestion of what is needed to cure religious lethargy, and the cause of the real condition of affairs (v. 7); also II Chron. 24:7). Joash saw the resultant ruin of the temple after 15 years of misrule; he saw the misconduct of the priests and did not hesitate to call them to account. The no easy task to undertake a reformation and restoration such as this, witness Moses, Luther, Wesley and Cary. These priests had aided him to gain his throne and doubtless had had a part in his boyhood training. Joash had inaugurated certain reforms, before he began this task which suggested the second need of (b) persistence (see I Chron. 24:5, 6). Such work also demands (c) systematic effort and gives rise to the question, "What are Israel's best kings by undertaking the restoration of the temple and won a place alongside of Hezekiah and Josiah. Modern churches are not strictly speaking, "a house of the Lord" such as the Jewish temple, yet the condition of many of our churches would indicate great indifference to the cause of the kingdom. Our bodies are indeed a "temple" I Cor. 3:16, 17 and the body and the church buildings alike should be kept in proper condition.

11. Liberality, vs. 9, 15. The plan to have the priests gather funds for the repairs was Scriptural (Exod. 28:28). God does not look upon the measure but upon the motive of our gifts (II Cor. 9:13). The priests did not "hasten the matter" so the king took it into his own hands (v. 9). In this remissness Jehoiada, as the chief priest, is held accountable for all (v. 7).

We have in this story a rich suggestion as to God's plan of Christian giving (1). The object of it was distinctly for the glory of God and not to outbid others or to wastefully use the money for selfish purposes. (2) All were to participate voluntarily, out of their abundance (II Chron. 24:7), systematically and faithfully. (3) The results were a house repaired (II Chron. 24:12) beautiful (II Chron. 24:13) with the worship restored (II Chron. 24:14). Joash seems to have laid great emphasis upon the "tabernacle of witness" (24:6) and we need to recall that each and every part of that temple was a testimony to the truth of God and had in it a spiritual suggestion and prophecy. As a whole, it suggested that God dwelt in the midst of his people. The sons of Athabab (Joash's grandmother) had so conducted themselves as to cause it to need repairing (II Chron. 24:7). When we turn to II Chron. 24:8-14 and read the record of the restoration of the temple, we discover: (1) Each had its part in the work. (2) Each did a "perfect" work, i. e., the task faithfully, fully and to a finish. (3) Each did an orderly work, "in his state." None sought to supplant or detract others in the work assigned. (4) Each did a strong work, it was "strengthened" and not a trifling work as men-pleasers or for the moment. (5) The more prayer and the more love, the more a chance and there will be no lack.

Again, let us note that they dealt "faithfully." We need to exercise faithfulness in our relations to God and in the use of that which he intrusts to our stewardship.

Man and God alike will have confidence in us according to the method whereby we receive and expend money.

These things were expended in a businesslike way (v. 11, 12, II Chron. 24:11), and the kingdom added strength to the line of the gifts.

THE SPIRIT OF LOVEJOY.

Next Sunday, Nov. 7, will mark the 78th anniversary of the death of Elijah Parish Lovejoy. The indomitable spirit of the great martyr to the cause of freedom and liberty lives until this day. Out of the east comes the new "Abolitionists," to decry the new dangers that confronts us. Although guaranteed equal rights by the Constitution, we have had to endure insult, outrage, malice, prejudice, and be denied the dearest rights of freedom. Now our manhood and womanhood is assailed; SEGREGATION, strikes at the very root of our honor. It aims at the very sap of life that nourishes honesty, ambition and courage. But the spirit of Lovejoy lives on. May it inspire us to greater aggressiveness. May every minister from his pulpit, Sunday, cry out to his followers against this injustice. We shall not surrender our rights and lay down our half-century of toil.

A USEFUL CAREER CLOSED.

With the death of J. Milton Turner, St. Louis and the country loses one of its greatest statesmen. The good things that Turner did in life will ever stand as a monument to the race. Starting teacher in the state of Missouri, he won his spurs in joint debate with that eminent statesman, Carl Schurz, whom he overmatched at Jefferson City on the question of enfranchisement. His ability attracted the attention of President Grant and leading Republicans of the state and nation, and as a consequence, he was appointed Minister Resident and Consul-General to the little African Republic of Liberia. He held this position so acceptably, the first term that he was re-appointed to a second.

He was foremost in founding Lincoln Institute and foremost in raising money from the Negro soldiers in establishing it, and, afterwards, also, he led in making it an institution to be sustained by the state and not by charity.

But the crown that he wears without a rival is the manly and successful fight that he made for the Negroes in the Indian Territory. The stipulations of the treaty with the Five Nations in the Indian Territory in 1866, was that the United States would buy from these nations 14,000,000 acres of land, known as Oklahoma, on condition that the Indians would immediately set the Negroes free, and, in two years grant them all the rights of Indian citizenship. The Indians set the Negroes free but did not give them citizenship and robbed them out of their share of the money accruing from the sale of the land. This case was taken by Turner before the President, Congress and the courts and he secured pro rata restitution for the Negro, and, also, in the sale of the Cherokee Strip for $80,000,000 he had appropriated $1,600,000 out of that sum for the Cherokee Freedmen. In the allotment of lands also hundreds of thousands of acres were secured by the Negroes of Oklahoma largely through the importunities of this remarkable man. His career has been checked on two continents and marvelous when you consider the earlier disadvantages of his race. He was possessed of inextinguishable hope, deep passion and purpose to which was added a national sense of activity. "It is human to err" and over his errors we let fall the broad mantle of charity knowing that whatever evil he has done must die but the hundreds of thousands of acres and millions of dollars secured by him will continue to benefit and bless many thousands of our people.

A PLEA FOR UNITY

Why the Anti-Segregation Committee of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People Needs Money

In the campaign that the Anti-Segregation Committee is waging in this city, nothing can be plainer than that they must have money, and yet a great many people are asking the question, "What do they need with money?"

First, let us see if we can get an idea of the task that lies before us. It is a stupendous one. There are even hundred thousand people in the city of St. Louis. Six hundred and fifty thousand of these are white. Among them are between one hundred and fifty and two hundred thousand voters. We must reach every one of these voters in order that our side of the question might have a hearing. We are not doing ourselves justice if we do not. The United Welfare Association is reaching them through their literature and we must do the same thing. We can not hope to defeat an army with arguments when they are using machine guns and poisonous gas against us. We must use the same kind of weapon they use. Now supposing we mail, let us say, to 150,000 voters one piece of literature with just one cent stamp on it. There is $1,500 right there, to say nothing of the cost of printing. True, we may try to reach them in some other way, but we cannot reach them in any way for much less than one cent a voter.

Then we must have some people employed to give their entire time to this work. We cannot accomplish anything by having two or three persons, or even more than that, devote an hour or two per day as volunteer service. We must have that and more. We must have some people to keep everlastingly at it, day in and day out, night in and night out.

A stenographer is being employed at a very meager salary, because she has the interest of the work at heart and wishes to donate part of her services. During her employment she has folded and sent out more than six thousand pieces of mail matter, to say nothing of the writing of three thousand letters. A solicitor is being employed to solicit funds and help organize the city into districts for volunteer workers. He is giving all of his time from eight o'clock in the morning until as late as nine o'clock at night. This in order that he might be ready when he cannot be reached at any other time. He must be paid for his services. We cannot expect people to give all of their time for nothing. It is unjust to them to ask them to do so. Mr. A. W. Lloyd, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, of Missouri, has donated in the name of the Pythians of this city, the use of the parlor on the first floor of the Pythian Building, as a permanent headquarters. We are under many obligations to Mr. Lloyd and his host of followers for their kindness and generosity. Mr. Clinton Thomas has donated his work on the sign that is seen in front of the building. Dr. T. A. Curtis generously donated the use of his reception room for an entire month, for temporary headquarters, until we could get a permanent location; for all of these things the committee feels very grateful.

What is needed now, more than anything else, is a united mind and a determined effort to defeat segregation. This is no time to stop to quibble over small things, for while we are doing this the enemy will get even greater advantages. Our petty grievances must be put aside; we must not be "a house divided against itself." If segregation comes it will not be for the man or woman whom we do not like, but it will be for all of us, the rich and the poor, the high and the low alike. Let us for once rise above the factional and class feeling and be united in putting forth a tremendous effort to defeat a measure that means to humiliate and stigmatize us and take away our first rights as citizens. Visit us at the Pythian Temple, 3137 Pine St., and leave a contribution.

Yours for the defeat of segregation,
Kathryn M. Johnson,
Kathryn M. Johnson, National Field Agent, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

TESTIMONIALS

Major's Oxford College, St. Louis, Mo.

To whom it may concern:
Before I saw your advertisement in the St. Louis Argus, I was like a ship without a captain. I did not know about hard work to earn a living but not enough to pass an examination before a college of hair culture. When I was asked where I learned my beauty treatments, I would shiver in my boots because I had no Oxford College to back me. But today I am content and happy because I am a graduate of the Oxford System and find all of my customers so well pleased. I am gaining new customers every day and must thank you again, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
Mildred Fields-Voting, Apt. 49th and 31st St. New York City.

To whom it may concern:
With many thanks for meeting the name of Oxford College, I will say that I have had some dealings with white colleges in the city of Chicago but find in the Oxford College more pleasure and better understanding than any of the others I have dealt with.

In truth I find pleasure in my work for the simple reason, your preparations have given me much satisfaction and when I am pleased with the results, know my customers must be at least I have found it so—so far.

I trust to be successful.

The Glee Club practice continues to be a time of great enjoyment at the building. The Club meets on Monday night at 8:30 p. m.

Dr. W. H. Peck, who spoke at the meeting last Sunday, made an all around Association talk which was enjoyed by the good body of men that was present.

Among the recent additions to the dormitory men is Prof. J. H. Lillard who taught at Georgia. Also, Col. George H. and Mr. Fisher, of Mobile, Alabama, who came to work for the Robinson Printing Company.

Business Men to Speak
For the first time since the Y. M. C. A. has been running its big men's meetings, ladies will be invited to the meeting, Sunday afternoon at Pythian Hall. There will be three speakers for that afternoon. Mr. Frank L. Williams, Mr. W. C. Gordon and Dr. William H. Perry will speak. Miss Mabel Story will render a solo. To this meeting all men and ladies are invited.

In view of the building campaign which the Y. M. C. A. is inaugurating in a short time, this meeting will be most interesting and epoch making. The time is 3:45, the place Pythian Hall.

A large crowd of men turned out to the Halloween celebration. The committee in charge of this affair, Dr. E. L. Grant, Mr. Troy Gorum, Mr. Douglass White and Mr. Stone, had arranged a most interesting evening for the men. Ernest Hutchinson put on a vaudeville act that pleased all who were present.
